

Local Independent Film “Guilt & Sentence” Wins at Los Angeles Movie Awards!

~ SPENCETF PRODUCTIONS INDEPENDENT FILM COMPANY ~

September 10, 2011 -- SpenceTF Productions™ LLC recently competed in the Los Angeles Movie Awards and received two awards: Award of Excellence and Best Screenplay. We are very honored by this recognition. We would like to thank the cast & crew, the financial supporters, local businesses, and our fans. There is no way that this film would have become a reality without the help of the people of Clearfield & Centre Counties where this movie was filmed. Guilt & Sentence starred local talent including Dan Mason of Phillipsburg, Stormi Rebo of Phillipsburg, Britt Reinke of DuBois, Stephen Fenush of Kylertown, E. Bernhard Warg of State College, and Paul Monella of Morrisdale. This film was directed & co-written by Spencer T. Folmar, produced by Jason Spanogle, co-written by Jeff Spanogle, the assistant director was Nicholas Jon Coble, script supervisor Amanda Keifer, location manager Ethen Turner, and production assistant Isaac March. There were at one point over 100 people from 4 different states working on this film, and there was great deal of local support in the entire process, from auditions, to production, to screenings.

The film premiered on June 18, 2010, at the historic Rowland Theatre with a record attendance of over 750 paying attendees. After the premiere was the first-ever digital screening at the Super 322 Drive-In Theater, followed by other screenings across the state. It ended its local tour at the State Theater in State College. This film is now available on DVD at SpenceTF.com/Store for $10.00, or online at Amazon Instant Video 7 day rental for only \$2.99. SpenceTF Productions LLC is an independent film company officially established in 2007. The first feature film that they produced was Fortified in 2008.

Festival Info: The Los Angeles Movie Awards receives many thousands of submissions each annual event. The Los Angeles Movie Awards mission is to celebrate Independent Motion Picture and Literary Arts by providing a platform for filmmakers and writers to have an opportunity to be awarded for their work. The Award of Excellence is only granted to the top 5 films of the festival. “Best Screenplay” is the only granted to feature length films.

Film Snapshot: Guilt & Sentence depicts the lives of two people, Janis and Peter, and the presentation of the compelling effects of manipulation and deception between them. We are our own worst enemies. The real sentence given, is not the jail time, but the universal opportunity for redemption, regardless of the past or present.

Runtime: 1 hour 35 minutes

Release year: 2010

Studio: SpenceTF Productions LLC

